Lesson: Career Exploration

Most students, and a lot of adults, do not know what they want to do, nor do they know what profession would enable them to excel. In order to help with this process, we recommend taking an assessment questionnaire to help guide you. Below is one that has been very effective for many students and it comes highly recommended.

1. Write down the results of your personality/career assessment(s).

2. Write down the top job types your assessment recommended. a. Pick 3 – You will conduct research on these.

3. Research the 3 jobs you selected above. a. Job Type – general description of this job/industry b. Companies – who are the top companies for this field of work? c. Are these companies hiring? - Try searching on: Indeed, CareerBuilder & Zip Recruiter d. What are the entry level job types in this career field? – Find out what skills, education and resources you will need to get hired in that entry level role. This is a great way to determine what you do/don't want to do AND a great way to start defining your goals to succeed in that career.
